Special Committee of Council of Wheeling. December 5th, 1870.

Since the notice was given, your Comemittee have had under consideration the remonstrance of stockholders of the Wheeling Iron works Company and others, which were referred to them, and having heard the statements of persons representing said Company, are still of the opinion that the nail mill and dwell-the consumer doubtless will expect an the opinion that the nail mill and dwelling hope belonging to said Company stroud be included within the said extension; but they are of the opinion that the farm of the late Hugh Nichols, deceased, not within the Ebenezer Zape survey, should be excluded therefrom, and that the north line of the city should run from should be excluded therefrom and that the north-line of the city should run from Ifanover street in Martin's Ferry to the north-west corner of the Ebenezer cles, such as tea, coffee and refined sugar,

Committee have prepared a bill which

Your Committee ask to be discharged from the further consideration of said remonstrance.

In response to a resolution of the Second Braich of this Council, passed at its last session, asking your Committee to report the torm of the act which they desired to have passed to effect the proposed extension, your Committee say that is was not their intention to present a bill to the Legislature, but simply to ask for the extension of the city limits as proposed, but since the adoption of said resolution your Committee have prepared a bill which Committee have prepared a bill which they berewith present and recommend for the approval of Council. Your Committee presume that it was not the design of Council that this Committee would insert anything in the bill and necessary to carry out the object for which they were appointed, and therefore have not done so. Any other amendments to our city charter which may be desired can be inserted as additional sections or effected by a separate bill. Your Committee presume that it was a separate bill.
